

CrossRoads Church is an interdenominational Christian church where people experience Real Faith in Jesus that will change their lives now and forever.

Our church was formed with some families sharing a vision for a new church that would serve those in the Peosta and Western Dubuque area. We are now a collection of over 200 people from different faith traditions worshipping together; including Methodists, Catholics, Lutherans, Presbyterians, and more. We have one thing in common:

We all love Jesus because He first loved us.

Dan Allison is the Lead Pastor of CrossRoads Church. He graduated from Hempstead High School in Dubuque and the University of Northern Iowa. He has been employed by Prudential Retirement for over 20 years, serving corporations as they help their employees save and invest for retirement.

Dan's teaching style is simple and helps people find their purpose in life as they hear about and experience the Real Jesus of the Bible. He has been leading Bible studies in the Dubuque area for over 25 years. Over the past 15 years, he has played a key role in the startup of three other churches in eastern Iowa. Dan and his wife Sarah and their 4 boys are excited to be on this faith journey together in Peosta.
